

University Goals Progress Chart

Goal	Students Union	University
1. Approve Official Fairtrade Policy	The Student Union has already created a Fairtrade Policy. See Policy Motion 460 - Trade Justice.	Fairtrade Policy has been signed by the Vice-Chancellor. See University Fairtrade Policy - Signed.
2. Set up a Fairtrade Steering Group.	The Students Union has already set up a Fairtrade Steering Group. See Policy Motion 460 - Trade Justice.	The Fairtrade Steering Group is now a University body. The University is represented on the Steering Group by Clive Singleton, General Catering Manager, Warwick Hospitality. He is also the University Catering Representative. See Steering Group Minutes, Third Meeting.
3. Commit to selling Fairtrade in all outlets	All tea coffee, hot chocolate and sugar in Students Union outlets is completely Fairtrade and Fairtrade foods are made available for sale in all campus shops. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Policy Motion 561 - Fair Trade in the Union.	Warwick Hospitality to make Fairtrade foods available in cafés/ restaurants/ bars on campus. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Steering Group Minutes, Second Meeting.
4. Commit to using Fairtrade at internal meetings and events	Catering for internal meetings and events provided by the Student Union outlets, which are completely Fairtrade. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Policy Motion 561 - Fair Trade in the Union.	Sachets of Fairtrade products (for example, coffee and tea) will be available as an option in the 'basket' provided by Warwick Hospitality to all internal meeting and conferences. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Steering Group Minutes, Third Meeting.
5. Commit to campaigning for the increased consumption of Fairtrade	There is a commitment in the Students Union to campaign for increased Fairtrade consumption on campus through the running of awareness raising events such as Fairtrade Fortnight. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Policy Motion 460 - Trade Justice; Policy Motion 561 - Fair Trade in the Union.	The Steering Group will work with the University's Communications Officer to promote Fairtrade through the University, including the website and relevant publications. For the new Academic Year 2004/2005. See Steering Group Minutes, Third Meeting.